Product Description

The Product replicates the price movements in the underlying Index (adjusted by the Units and the Management Fee) and is therefore in terms of risk comparable to a direct investment in the underlying Index. On the Redemption Date, the Investor will receive a Cash Settlement in the Settlement Currency, as further described under Redemption.

Index description: The underlying Index is a dynamic, actively managed index (the “Index”) which is discretionary managed by the Index Sponsor and the Index Administrator and calculated by the Index Calculation Agent. The Index Components (the “Components”) of the Index may – subject to the Index Administrator’s veto right – be rebalanced by the Index Sponsor on a regular basis. The Index Sponsor determines and is responsible for the composition of the Index and may add, replace or remove Index Components in accordance with a set of predefined rules set out in the Index Rule Book QET6O9, dated 18/01/2024 (the “Index Rule Book”).

Objective: The AnchorFlex Index invests in a basket of carefully selected financial products that offer attractive interest rates, risk premiums, and dividends and/or have a market-neutral payout profile. Instruments such as bonds and structured products with a focus on capital preservation, most of which have maturities of less than 12 months. ETFs, ETPs and funds can also be used. The aim of the index is to generate a performance of 3 - 5% above the risk-free interest rate in Swiss francs with a low correlation to the traditional markets.

Universe: The Index universe consists of eligible Index Components which may include Cash Instruments, Bonds, Mutual Funds, ETFs, Listed Structured Products or ETPs and Non Listed Structured Products as determined by the Index Sponsor and subject to the restrictions defined in the Index Rule Book.

Distributions: Net distributions with respect to Components (after deduction of any expenses and taxes) will lead to an adjustment of the Index Units (as specified in the Index Rule Book).

The Index represents a hypothetical portfolio. There is no obligation of the Index Calculation Agent, the Issuer or any other party to purchase and/or hold any Components and there is no actual portfolio of assets to which any person is entitled or in which any person has an ownership interest. The Index consists of Components, the performance of which will be used as a reference point for the purposes of calculating the value of the Index. The Issuer shall be free to choose how to invest or further proceed with any proceeds of the issuance of any of the Products. References to any rebalancing of the Index or addition, adjustment, substitution, replacement or removal of Components should not be construed as imposing an obligation on the Issuer, the Index Calculation Agent or any person to acquire or dispose of any securities, investments, assets or other property but are references to the change in, and relate solely to the calculation of, the value of the Index, which is relevant for the determination of any amount payable in respect of the Products.

Upon request, the Index Rule Book and the latest composition of the Index are available free of charge from the Index Calculation Agent (CAT Financial Products AG, Tessinerplatz 7, 8002 Zurich, Switzerland) or can be downloaded on www.cuglos.com.

Product Specific Risks: Investors may lose some or all of their investment as well as the transaction costs as they are fully exposed to the performance of the Underlying Index. The Product does not confer any claim to receive rights and/or payments of the Underlying Index, such as dividend payments, unless explicitly stated in the documentation governing the Product. Please refer to the Product Documentation as regards the further Product specific risk factors to be taken into account.

Issuer Risk: Investors are exposed to the credit risk of the Issuer to the extent that the proceeds from the liquidation of collateral upon occurrence of an Event of Default (less the costs of liquidation and payout) are not sufficient to cover the Investors' claims. Illiquidity of Underlying: One or, if applicable, more of the Index Component(s) might be or become illiquid over the lifetime of the Product. Illiquidity of an Index Component might lead to larger bid/offer spreads of the Product and/or to an extended time period for buying and/or selling the Index Component respective to acquire, unwind or dispose of the hedging transaction(s) or asset(s) or to realise, recover or remit the proceeds of such hedging transaction(s) or asset(s) which might implicate a postponed redemption or delivery and/or a modified redemption amount, as reasonably determined by the Index Calculation Agent.
